

Delivering Excellence

The Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery
Robert Bucholz Resident Journal Club Support Program

Extended Deadline: October 25, 2024

The Journal of Bone & Joint Surgery (JBJS) is proud to sponsor The Robert Bucholz Resident Journal Club Support Program, which is intended to enhance orthopaedic training by providing educational information on managing an effective journal club and teaching residents how best to evaluate the current scientific literature.

Objective: To promote career-long skills in evaluating the orthopaedic literature as it impacts clinical decision making among orthopaedic residents

Mission: To promote increased use of high-quality orthopaedic literature as a basis for changes in practice decision-making

Vision: To see increased dependence of orthopaedic residencies on Journal Club activities to teach orthopaedic trainees skills to effectively evaluate the musculoskeletal literature

APPLICATION DETAILS

Extended Deadline for Application: October 25, 2024

Submission Instructions: Complete the application electronically, attach a copy of the institution's IRS Tax Determination letter, and email to journalclub@jbjs.org by the deadline.

Funding Period: October 2024 - June 2025

Amount: To be determined upon award

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- All eligibility items below are met.
- Application (pages 4-6) is complete and emailed to journalclub@jbjs.org by deadline
- A copy of the affiliated organization's IRS Tax Determination Letter is attached to application.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicant must be an orthopaedic or osteopathic resident in a residency training program.
- The residency training program must reside in the United States of America.
- The residency training program must be affiliated with a 501(c)(3) organization that is tax exempt and provide a copy of its IRS Tax Determination Letter that proves nonprofit status (W-2 forms will not be accepted).
- A suitable mentor (program director, department chair, or faculty member) must sponsor the applicant (signature required on page 5).

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Purpose: The primary purpose of the support program is to bolster journal club activities. The support period is for one academic year. Funds can be used to support the journal club and resident education either directly or indirectly - approval by JBJS is not necessary. The overall goal of the Journal Club Support Program is to promote career-long skills in evaluating the orthopaedic literature as it relates to impact on clinical decision making among orthopaedic residents. Specific objectives are:

- To provide programs with guidance in creating an effective journal club
- To teach residents how to read and evaluate a scientific article
- To engender effective participation in the journal club process

JBJS believes that these objectives can be enhanced by inviting experienced orthopaedic journal editors to participate in journal club and share with the participants their knowledge about the journal peer-review process. A list of JBJS Deputy Editors who are willing to serve in this capacity will be made available to all awarded programs.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Review Procedure: A review committee identified by the Editor-in-Chief of JBJS will review the applications and select the award recipients.

Notification of Award: JBJS will notify each applicant within 30 days of the application deadline.

Payment Information: Proceeds of the Journal Club Support Program will be disbursed to each selected program in a single payment. The monetary check will be made to the department and will not provide for overhead expense payable to any institution. If the full amount of the funding is not used during the application year, the excess may be carried over to the next year.

Implementation Materials: Journal club aids, selected by the Editor-in-Chief of The Journal of Bone & Joint Surgery, are available online at <https://journals.lww.com/jbjsjournal/Pages/Resident-Resources.aspx>.

Survey of Recipients: As a requirement for funding, the resident and mentor must agree to participate in periodic surveys conducted by JBJS, which will provide useful information pertinent to the mission of this organization and continuous improvement of the support program.

End-of-Year Evaluation: JBJS will send an evaluation form to each grantee for completion by the end of the academic year. The evaluation form must be submitted by June 30, 2025.

Applicant Access to JBJS Clinical Classroom: The senior resident or chief resident in funded journal clubs will also have free access to the JBJS adaptive learning platform, Clinical Classroom. Access to the platform begins upon notification of application acceptance. To extend this access to the rest of your program via a free trial, please complete the form on <https://clinicalclassroom.jbjs.org/residency-program-contact-form/>
